Attachment 1—Additional Questions for the Record

The Honorable Greg Walden

1. The FCC's July 2015 TCPA Declaratory Ruling and Order contains a provision allowing one call to a phone number where the caller believes they have consent, when the number may have been reassigned to someone who had not given previous consent. However, this "safe-harbor" has been questioned as the recipient isn't required to inform the caller of the reassigned number or even answer the call for the rule to take effect. Has the FCC's safe-harbor provision been helpful to your business operations?
2. In an August Reuters article, Alison Frankel discusses "'Professional' robocall plaintiffs and the 'zone of interest' defense", specifically pointing out "businesses" started by individuals to profit off of filing TCPA lawsuits. When the law was enacted, do you believe its intent was to encourage these plaintiffs and the businesses that benefit from them?
3. The Do Not Call Section of the TCPA states: "It shall be an affirmative defense in any action brought under this paragraph that the defendant has established and implemented, with due care, reasonable practices and procedures to effectively prevent communications in violation of the regulations prescribed under this subsection." Do you believe this affirmative defense should also be applied to the Private Right of Action section? Why or why not?

Attachment 2—Member Requests for the Record

During the hearing, Members asked you to provide additional information for the record, and you indicated that you would provide that information. For your convenience, descriptions of the requested information are provided below.

The Honorable Marsha Blackburn

1. In your opinion, what are three things Congress make certain we change in the TCPA when updating the Act?
